ORDER

Ld. Counsels for the operational creditor are present. No one is present from the corporate debtor's side.

Ld. Counsel for the petitioner filed winding up petition on the ground of inability to pay debt in the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court, which has come to this Court on transfer.

As per Government notification all winding up petition on the ground of inability to pay debt shall be treated as an application under sections 7, 8 or 9 of the Insolvency & Bankruptcy Code, 2016 and in compliance of that petitioner has filed fresh petition under the IBC, 2016. Registry is directed to register the petition under the IBC and issue fresh notice on the corporate debtor in compliance of the order of Hon'ble NCLAT in the case of Innovative Industries Ltd. –versus- ICICI Bank. Notice may be handed over to the operational creditor for serving on the corporate debtor. Petitioner is directed to receive the notice from the office for serving it on the corporate debtor by hand delivery as well as speed post and file affidavit of service within 7 days.

Winding up petition is being disposed of accordingly.

List the matter on 09/08/2017.
