ORDER

The petitioner company, U73100DL1991PTC046606, which was incorporated on 02.12.1991, failed to hold its AGM for the F.Y ending on 31.03.2013, and consequently defaulted in filing its Annual Returns and Financial Statements within the statutory period, resulting in non compliance of the statutory requirement u/s 159, 166(1), 220(1) of the Companies Act, 1956.

2. The default was subsequently made good on 05.09.2014 by filing the Annual Returns and Financial Statement for the year ending 31.03.2013. The office of the RoC has submitted in its report that the fine applicable till the notification of the Companies Act was one u/s 162(1), 168 & 220(3) of the Companies Act 1956 which could extend to Rs.500/- for each day's delay, while after notification of the Companies Act, 2013, i.e. w.e.f. 01.04.2014, the offence attracted a minimum fine of Rs.50,000/- but which could extend to Rs.5lacs. Accordingly, the office of the RoC has calculated and recommended the imposition Rs.12,61,000/-, being the maximum fine u/s 162(1), 220(3) & 168 of the Companies Act 1956 and Section 92, 99 & 137 of Companies Act 2013.

3. As per the report, prosecution has not been initiated. The petitioner submits that failure to comply with the statutory provisions on time was beyond their control as the two major shareholders are incorporated abroad. Steps had to be taken to change the financial year from the existing January-December to April-March. Delay also occurred on account of some internal review of the financial processes and accounts. The AGM could also not be held on time on account of corporate restructuring at the global level.

4. Given the facts of the case, that this was the company's first default and did not cause prejudice to the interest of its members or other stakeholders, nor did it impact the financial strength of the company, I am inclined to accept that the said default was not deliberate and as such, it would be sufficient to impose a composite fine of Rs.

5,00,000/- on the petitioner Company for the default in adhering to the statutory provisions on time.

5. Subject to the remittance of the aforesaid fine within two weeks, the offence shall stand compounded. Upon compliance, the Bench Officer shall communicate the same to the office of the RoC for taking appropriate steps.

6. Petition stands disposed off in terms of the above and consigned to Record Room.
