ORDER

Petitioner is called, absent. None appeared for petitioner. Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka had already raised some objections before transferring to this Tribunal. Those objections have not been complied. After transfer to this Tribunal, notice has been issued to the petitioner from time to time. Notice is served on the petitioner and also the counsel appearing for the petitioner.

It is listed today. Information is obtained from India Post that notice is delivered to the petitioner and the counsel to the petitioner, ~~are served~~. Yet. None appeared. It appears the petitioner is not interested to proceed with this matter in spite of notices issued and served, petitioner did not turn up and even the counsel for the petitioner also did not turn up.

Therefore, there is no point in adjourning the petition and ordering fresh notice. The petition deserves to be dismissed for default and for non-prosecution.

In the result, petition is dismissed for non-prosecution.
