ORDER

T.C.P. NO. 28/111/CLB/MB/MAH/2011

1. No one is present from the side of the Petitioner. From the side of the Respondent Learned Representative Ms. Cathrine Fernandez appeared and objected the absence of the Petitioner as happened in the past as well.
2. According to the arguments of Learned Advocate of Respondent, the Petitioner is not serious about the Petition, hence in a situation when the pleadings are complete, the matter can be proceeded ex-parte on merits.
3. Considering the continuous absence from the side of the Petitioner, it is hereby decided that, in case the Petitioner shall remain absent then the matter shall be proceeded ex-parte qua the Petitioner on merits after hearing the respondents.
4. Last chance is granted to the Petitioner. The matter is fixed for final hearing on 26.04.2017. The Learned Counsel of the Respondent is directed to communicate the contents of the Order and next date of hearing to the Learned Counsel of the Petitioner and the Petitioner.
