The 1^{st} Applicant is a private limited company and the Applicants 2^{nd} , 3^{rd} and 4^{th} are directors.

It is stated that, there was delay in holding the Annual General Meeting of the company due to server crash at registered office in India, which is linked to main server in US. Therefore, the company was unable to hold Annual General Meeting on or before 30/9/2014.

After finalization of accounts, the financial statements were audited. The Board of Directors convened the Annual General Meeting for the financial year 2013-14 on 27/11/2014 and there was delay of 57 days. At the Annual General Meeting the financial statements were approved and adopted by the share holders of the company. The balance sheet and annual return were filed in the Registrar of Companies, Bengaluru on 14/01/2015. Thus the violation is neither deliberate nor malicious and had occurred inadvertently in course of business. Therefore this application is filed suo moto for compounding.

We have heard the Practicing Company Secretary who urged before us that due to some unavoidable circumstances, the accounts were not finalized and hence Annual General Meeting could not be held on time. The Practicing Company Secretary further contended that Annual General Meeting was held subsequently on 27/11/2014 and accounts were approved by the share holders of the company. The Practicing Company Secretary further stated that applicants voluntarily filed this suo-moto application accepting violation of provision of section 96 of Companies Act, 2013. The Practicing Company Secretary has further stated that violation is punishable under section 168 of companies Act,
