ORDER

Counsel for the petitioner present. As seen from the order dated 2.6.2017, it is on record that there was a mention that Shri T. Shrinivasan Advocate caused appearance on behalf of the respondent and made submission that he has not received copy of the Petition. The Advocate has also put his signature on the order-sheet dated 2.6.2017. However, due to inadvertence, on 23.6.2017, it came to be recorded in the order that the Petitioner submitted that notice has been sent to the other side and the service is awaited which is contrary to the order dated 2.6.2017. The petitioner submitted that the same has happened due to inadvertence. In view of the order dated 2.6.2017 and the absence of the respondent, we hold that the respondent deliberately did not cause appearance in the matter even today. In the circumstances, the respondent is proceeded ex parte. Counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has made compliance of Section 9 (3) (b) and (c) of the I&B Code, 2016. Counsel for the petitioner prayed time for arguments. At request, time is enlarged. The matter is posted for arguments. Put on 18.7.2017 at 10.30. A.M.
