ORDER

✓ Matter is called. Matter is reserved

Counsel representing both the parties are present. Both the counsel submitted their arguments on 17.8.2017 and the matter was reserved for orders. The Registry received a communication by way of e-mail from the counsel for respondent requesting not to pronounce the order as they wanted to place some important submissions today. Counsel for respondent filed a memo stating that the respondent has paid the salary of Rs.17,25,750/- and conveyance reimbursement of Rs.1,74,076 to the petitioner who is an operational creditor. He also stated that the advance amount of Rs.63,60,000 is in dispute and that cannot be claimed by the petitioner as an operational creditor. Copy of the memo is furnished to the other side. The same is taken on record. Counsel for petitioner stated that his client is not accepting to receive the abovesaid amount towards the salary and conveyance reimbursement. Heard the submissions of both counsel. Order is reserved.
