3.	Prachi Wazalwar Adv for Petitioner ORDER
----	---	--	---

CP 281/241/NCLT/MB/MAH/2017

On hearing the submissions of either side, it appears since the primary allegation raised by the Petitioner in this case is for a direction against R2 to attend the Board Meeting and Annual General Meeting subsequent to holding Board Meeting, to which, the professional appearing on behalf of the Respondent side has stated that there was an understanding one year before between the Petitioner and R2 that this Petitioner would purchase the shareholding of R2 herein, ever since, the company has been run solely by the Petitioner, though R2 has been continuing as Director of the Company. Therefore, the professional appearing on behalf of R2 has submitted that in fact this Petitioner has been oppressing R2 herein, henceforth he says that no order could be passed until the submissions of the Respondent side are fully heard.

In view of hearing the submissions of either side, instead of making any observations, since R2 has already filed reply, the Petitioner side is directed to file rejoinder within 4 weeks hereof.

List this matter for hearing on 10.10.2017.
