Common Order

Ld. Counsel for the respondents has addressed her arguments in CA 470/2009.

2. Mr. Rajesh Tyagi, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner concedes that he is not prepared with the arguments. It appears that the main resistance by the petitioner to the execution of the consent order is an alleged demand raised by the Income Tax Department. However, no such resistance or notice of demand has been pointed out by the Ld. Counsel. It would also be pertinent to know whether the demand had been raised before the last consent order was passed in February, 2012.

3. Be listed on 28.09.2016.
